It seems all these Brigands answer to Vincent
- a most ugly, fly infestering rotten meatsack. He came in my cell today, and told me he wants the Shadow Tuning fork. I told him I will never tell him, and killing me will solve nothing. He kept asking, and to finally get him out of my cell I told him it's hidden in a most dangerous place in Ilshenar that no man or woman will ever dare searching for it!

I wish I hadn't said that now, he said he will organize a search party, and in the morning they leave to search many places in Ilshenar, and they are taking ME with them!

To whomever finds this book, please come save me! All I know is he told the men to get the horses ready, they ride to the south in the morning.
